Event Overview

Convening medical aesthetic physicians from around the world

The World Congress of Aesthetic Medicine (WCAM), now in its 20th year, is an international meeting held every other year specifically to gather the world's experts, thought leaders and practitioners in the Aesthetic Medicine community, regardless of their specialty.

WCAM is presented by the Union Internationale de Médecine Esthétique (UIME) which was founded in 1975 by four European Countries (Belgium, France, Italy and Spain) in response to the blooming of a new specialty within the medical world: Aesthetic Medicine. UIME currently has 26 country association members representing over 33,000 physicians worldwide.

The American Academy of Aesthetic Medicine (AAAM) has been selected by the UIME's executive committee to hold the 20th World Congress of Aesthetic Medicine at the JW Marriott Miami, Florida on November 12-15 November, 2015.

The American Academy of Aesthetic Medicine (AAAM), established in 1999 by Dr Michel Delune, has had great success in the United States, Asia Pacific, Middle East, South Africa and Europe, having trained over 9,000 physicians in the art and science of Aesthetic Medicine through its certification and masters courses around the world, annual congresses in the US and Asia, and publications.

2 Amazing Opportunities to Hear Anti-Aging Master, Dr Thierry Hertoghe!

"The Medicine of 2030 is now ready for your practice!"

The 20th World Congress of Aesthetic Medicine is proud to include two insightful and practical events by anti-aging specialist, Dr Thierry Hertoghe as its satellite events.

Dr Thierry Hertoghe (Belgium) is the President of the International Hormone Society (over the 3,000 physicians worldwide) and the World Society of Anti-ageing Medicine (over 7,000 physicians worldwide).

He has written various books on hormone therapy, including the International best seller The Hormone Handbook - the reference guide for hormone therapies throughout the world, as well as reference guides to anti-ageing medicine and nutritional therapies.

Dr Hertoghe has initiated numerous new applications of hormone therapy to reverse ageing and disease, including hormone mesotherapy and local aesthetical or therapeutic hormone applications, and has acquired expertise in 27 different hormone therapies.

A renowned international speaker, he is a firm believer that the aim of medicine should be to reverse ageing from the inside through regeneration with hormone and other therapies, completed by local treatments on areas of the body, which remained refractory to regenerative treatments.

Don't miss Dr Hertoghe at the 20th World Congress of Aesthetic Medicine.
