

Antoinette Lloyd, MD

Dr Lloyd is an honor graduate of Yale University School of Medicine and has practiced medicine in the United States for over 25 years. She worked as a board certified family physician before establishing Allure Cosmetic Medical Center in Orange Park Florida in 2004.

Dr Lloyd is a trailblazer, as she is the first physician in northeast Florida to open a medical office dedicated exclusively to the practice of non-surgical aesthetic medicine, and is the first physician in the US to receive her Board Certification from the American Academy of Aesthetic Medicine.

Dr Lloyd passionately enjoys practicing and teaching the art of aesthetic medicine.
