

Manon Pilon
Author and Medspa Consultant

Medical Spa consultant, recognized educator, researcher, medical esthetician, international Director of Education for "Derme.ca" and renowned author of the book entitled: "Anti-Aging The Cure: Based on your Body Type". Manon Pilon has conducted seminars throughout the world, educating medical specialists, estheticians, dermatologists, nurses, as well as plastic surgeons and several other medical professionals. She is specialized in skin disorders and teaches how to prevent them.

Founder of multiple day spas and a private schools in Montreal, Pilon has dedicated over 20 years by teaching in the skin care industry and continues to extend her advanced clinical and business expertise amongst skin care professionals around the world.

She has led skin care conferences worldwide, notably in Paris, the USA, London, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Geneva, Singapore & Sydney. Furthermore, Pilon has been invited as Master of Ceremony at the Las Vegas International Esthetics Conference (2003) and as a guest speaker to all the largest esthetic, dermatology, esthetic medicine & anti-aging shows in North America.

In 2002, Pilon was also nomination on the list of Who's Who in New York. In 2006, her first book was very well received by the medical and aesthetic industry. In 2007, she was invited to appear on the most popular TV show in Canada. Manon Pilon is now hosting a radio show every Sunday at 2:00pm on CJAD radio station called "New Lifestyles".

Over the years, Pilon has also written & published several articles in recognized professional magazines and has been an invited guest on several television & radio shows. She is appreciated as being a true motivator.

Manon Pilon remains very active in the industry, continuously using her voice to give back to the esthetic, spa & medical community.