

Dr. Richard Yang

GP, Skin cancer physician, Cosmetic and Laser physician

BMed FRACGP Dip Derm(Cardiff) Fellow ACAM Fellow AAAM Dip AAAM(Cosmetic)

Dr Richard Yang has worked as a General Practitioner since 2001 and became fellow of RACGP in 2004. Richard has special interests in Skin cancer, Cosmetic & Anti-Ageing, Sports and Exercise medicine as well as General Practice.

Richard acquired his Diploma of Dermatology qualifications in Cardiff in 2006 after setting up his skin cancer clinic (Molescreen Australia) in Hawthorn in 2005. He is still practicing skin cancer detection on daily basis with his advanced dermatoscopy skills and will continue to provide the best service of skin cancer prevention, detection and management here at NIIM Clinic.

Over the past 4 years, Richard has worked in Cosmetic & Anti-Ageing Medicine extensively. In a rather short space of time in 2018, he acquired 2 fellowships of American Academy of Aesthetic Medicine (AAAM) and Australian College of Aesthetic Medicine (ACAM). He is now an assistant trainer for AAAM and a senior trainer of cosmetic threads for non-surgical (minimal invasive) face lift. He is also a trainer of wrinkle and filler injections.

Richard has joined Alcedonia Laser Clinic recently to work along with our experienced Dermal Therapist, Ally Khan, utilizing his advanced laser knowledge and experience to provide extra services such as Nightlase for snoring in addition to our current cosmetic, skin, laser and gynecology treatments.

Richard is currently studying Diploma of sports and exercise medicine through University of Bath, UK.
